For 90 years, Camp Ho Mita Koda has been carrying out Dr. Henry John's vision of providing a summer camp experience to children with diabetes, regardless of their ability to pay. More than 20,000 children have attended camp in these 90 years, and most everyone has a story of how camp improved their life after a Type 1 Diabetes diagnosis. Camp Ho Mita Koda is the very first and oldest operating camp in the country for children with T1D.

Backpack Bivouac is Camp Ho Mita Koda's largest annual fundraiser, which directly supports camp operations. This year's event will be held at the Camp Ho Mita Koda grounds in Newbury, OH on September 7, 2019 and promises to be an evening filled with food, fun, and friends! We are reaching out for your support to help us to continue to provide our first class programming and medical support to our campers. Support that makes a difference and lasts a lifetime!

There are many ways to support Backpack Bivouac. The Foundation is most grateful for your support! Please reach out to one of us should you have any questions and we hope to see you September 7!
